Randall Leads State in War Chest Drive

State Will Aid on Street Work

$2,500 Saving Is Offered Canyon

Ordinance To Be Taken Up To Meet Requirements on Parking of Automobiles

An ordinance will be considered at the meeting of the City Commission at the next regular meeting which will be of great importance to the street work in Canyon.

The State Highway Department has agreed to assume the repair of the highway through Canyon, starting north of the depot, south to Fourth Avenue and then east to the city limits. It will cost about $2,500 to put these streets back in first class condition. The state will then assume the responsibility of maintaining these streets the same as the highways are repaired, with frequent retopping as necessary.

The only responsibility of the city is to provide for parallel parking on these streets. The only blocks which will be seriously affected is the one on the north side of the square and the one between the bank and postoffice. Parallel parking is generally observed along the remainder of the streets.

The city proposes to set a parking limit of two hours on the blocks within the business section in order that cars of business people will not monopolize all of the parking places throughout the day. The two hour limit will go off after 6 o'clock in the evening.

The parking section next to the court house lawn will not be affected by the new order.

The City Commission has been considering this proposal for several weeks. Mayor W. A. Warren stated Monday that the amount of money involved was too great to turn down the proposition. Canyon is planning for extensive street improvements next year and the city's budget could not be stretched enough to cover all of the streets which must be repaired. A man will be put on by the city in the spring to devote all of his time to street and alley work. It is impossible to interest contractors in this kind of work, and the City Commission believes that the work can be handled by local men more cheaply than by letting a contract.

Absentee Voting At Rapid Rate Is Report of Clerk

More Randall county citizens are voting absentee this year than ever before, according to a report from the office of County Clerk A. B. Holt. Five to six persons are voting every day. Most of these intend being out of the county on Nov. 7.

The first shipment of federal ballots have been received from the Secretary of State. These ballots are cast by men in service who have not paid their poll taxes. These ballots are cast only for president, vice president and congressman. According to the law passed by congress,, these ballots are to be counted for 30 days after Nov. 7. It is reported from some border states that the soldier vote may swing the election in some states. It is therefore possible that the results of the election may not be settled on Nov. 7, but will have to await the counting of the soldier votes which come in late.

Pvt. Pierce has been in the service more than 2½ years. Probably he realizes more than any other boy who has returned just what sacrifices are being paid.

Pvt. Pierce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pierce and was connected with the Hawks Motors, Inc. for severail years before going into the army.

County Road System Is Approved at Meeting of Council Held Friday

Farm-to-Market and School Bus Roads Are Approved—To Employ Secretary

Randall county will ask the State Highway Commission for 75 miles of farm-to-market roads. The Randall County Planning and Development Council adopted this program of roads at the meeting Monday night at the monthly session. Plans for the roads must be carefully worked out and submitted to the state department.

Senator Grady Hazlewood has conferred with the highway committee of the Council, making valuable suggestions as to the necessary procedure in presenting plans for the road construction.

The new roads will be located in parts of the county which will serve the largest number of farmers in getting to market, as well as bringing school busses into Canyon. School busses operating from various parts of the county have been greatly handicapped because of the lack of a sufficient amount of hard surfaced roads during past years.

The Council is now ready to consider the employment of a full time secretary to carry on local work. Dr. S. H. Condron, president, John McCarty, vice president, and C. L. Thompson, secretary of the Council have been assured of funds from the county and city to employ an experienced secretary to carry on this work.

Extension of rural electrification and telephone lines is being handled by another committee of the Council. Progress is reported on this work.

The development of homesites between Canyon and Amarillo along the highway is considered one of the greatest developments which will take place after the war. Scores of Amarillo business men are considering building their homes along the highway, and utility connections will be sought by the Council for this area.

Members of the Council are certain that developments will take place in Randall county in the postwar period and the organization is planning to be ready to assist local citizens in all of these problems.

Randall county has been assigned a quota of $200 to assist in Girl Scout work for the coming year.

Those who will make contributions to this fund are asked to see Milton Morris, Hosea Foster, or leave their contributions at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office.

A very fine program for the Girl Scouts is underway in Canyon, and this modest amount will be of great assistance in the program.

S-Sgt. Billy Black accompanied his sister, Mrs. Betty Jo LaCour back to California Friday. He reported for further assignment after having returned from Italy.

Old Debt on Park Bobs Up Again

Legislature May Be Asked For Appropriation Provided Land Price Is Equalized

The following Associated Press dispatch from Austin is of great interest to the people of Randall county:

The 49th Legislature may be asked to clear up what the state auditor has described as the "somewhat clouded" outlook of the Palo Duro Park, one of the state's most spectacular and best-paying recreation spots.

Reports from Amarillo were that boosters of a plan to make Palo Duro a national park by a similar process under which the Big Bend Park was converted, will ask the Legislature to appropriate funds to retire the present indebtedness of approximately $400,000 against the 15,000-acre tract.

State Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo commented, however, that such appropriations were a possibility only if the mortgage holders will agree to equalize the price per acre in accordance with nearby land values.

Soldiers and Prisoners Come to Aid Farmers

If the farmers of Randall county did not have the assistance of the soldiers from the Amarillo Army Air Field and the Italians from the Hereford camp they would not be able to handle their big feed crop.

Many of the soldiers are spending their days off from duty on the farms and are making splendid shocking hands for the farmers.

Eighteen crews from the prison camp are being used on the Randall county farms. They are giving good service to the farmers, according to reports from over the county.

The weather has been clear this week, and much of the feed has been saved during this fine weather.

Buffalo-Tech Game Will Be Played At Butler Field Friday Night

Busses Will Take W. T. Students to the Game at Amarillo Friday Night

West Texas State Buffaloes will meet Texas Tech at Butler Field in Amarillo Friday night at 8 o'clock. The game is being sponsored by the Amarillo Junior Chamber of Commerce. Tickets are on sale at the drug stores in Canyon. Canyon citizens are urged to buy their tickets here in order to avoid the confusion at the gates in Amarillo.

The Buffs are in good condition for the game. After a week's rest all members of the small squad are ready to do battle. The Buffs have only 27 men in uniform, compared with 40 men which are on the Tech squad.

Tech has lost every game this year, but has played harder teams than have the Buffs. The Buffs have lost all but the game against the University of New Mexico. If the Buffs can defeat Tech, they will have clear championship of the Border Conference for the year. Tech has not yet played New Mexico but will meet the Lobos later in the season.

Students of the college will be taken to Amarillo for the game in chartered busses which will leave the administration building at 6:30 o'clock. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell was able to secure busses rather than attempt to provide a sufficient number of cars to haul the students to the game.

The game Friday night will be one of the best college games to be played in the Panhandle this year and it is estimated that a record crowd will be on hand to see these two good teams. Both teams are playing without the support of service units, and while all of the boys are young and inexperienced, they are putting everything they have into the game.

City Well Makes 475 Gallons per Minute Is Report

The tower is being erected over the new city well which was recently completed.

The new well is not being used much, since the wells at the original plant are producing more water than is now being used by the people of Canyon.

The new well has been given test runs a number of times in order to keep the machinery in working condition. The well will produce 475 gallons per minute, states Mayor W. A. Warren. Canyon will have all of the water necessary for the coming summer.

County Has the Highest Net Gain

Six Committees Have Not Reported—All Workers Are Urged to Finish Canvass

Randall county was the leading county in Texas on the combined 1943 and 1944 War Chest Drives on Oct. 21. According tp a report to County Chairman Milton Morris, Randall county had raised 192.5% on the quotas for the two years.

Contributions on the 1944 drive made up to yesterday amounted to $4,314.93, according to receipts paid in at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office. The total for 1943 was $3,900.

Mr. Morris states that six workers in the county have so far failed to report. He hopes that all these will make their reports before the end of the week in order that he may make a final report on the collections for the county.

The quota for 1944 was $3,232. Mr. Morris sent $3,300 to state headquarters the first week of the drive. The balance of the contributions will be sent to headquarters as soon as all reports are received from the workers of the county.

Mr. Morris urges that any citizen who has not been solicited during the drive will see him, or leave their contribution at the office of the Public Service Company.

When the drive is completed and all workers have reported, a detailed report will be made on the contribution. The Farm Victory quota under the direction of County Agent W. H. Upchurch assumed half of the quota for this year and the farmers have exceeded their quota by a considerable amount. This amount will be announced when all contributions are received.

Hitler will be killed as a war criminal if some of the Germans do not take this little act of world-kindness into their own hands. But what is he doing for the future of the world? He has transported 10 million able bodied conquered men into Germany to work in his war plants. These men are slaves and two million of them have been killed or died of hunger. The balance of them will be useless to their homelands when the war is over because of mal-treatment. Hitler has turned his soldiers loose to propogate more German babies. He is looking to the future by taking care of these babies in state camps, where they are being well cared for and indoctrinated with Nazi ideals. The birth rate in France, Holland, Belgium, Greece, Poland and the other war torn nations has dropped to a very low point. When the war is over these nations will be weak in manpower, and with no great numbers growing to face the millions of children which Hitler has been able to raise in spite of the war. The only way to keep peace in Europe for the next 50 years will be for an adequate police force to be furnished from the United Nations to see to it that the Nazi ideals, which are being sown among the children of today in spite of the certainty of defeat, shall not break out in the future.

The Dallas News has come out flat for Dewey. The Dallas News is the leading newspaper of the South, and its influence is large. We shall see just what effect this will have on Texas politics. The Dallas News prints daily many letters of commendation and abuse for its stand. Those who enjoy wearing the political brass collar like to call the Dallas News a Republican newspaper. This is amusing in view of the fact that Roosevelt is making a bid for Republican votes and cannot be re-elected without Republican support. Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt were both elected by Republican support, and no one in Texas abused those Republicans for having come into the Democratic camp to vote for the man of their choice. The Democrats are outnumbered in the nation. Then why abuse those Democrats and brand them as Republicans when they believe they are right in opposing a continuation of the Roosevelt-Hillman-Browder machine for 16 long years? In a Democracy we are supposed to give the people the right of a free ballot.

We hear a lot about the wonderful prosperity which exists in America today. We are told that everyone is making more money than ever before. But hold your hats for a moment and look at the truth: There are 20 million white collared workers, professional men and women, and small business men who are worse off than they have been in the past due to the fact that the cost of living has advanced and their salaries are the same; the nation has steadily increased the national debt since Roosevelt took office, with no attempt made to meet the nation's expenditures; money has been wasted and thrown to the four winds for 12 years. The war brought on this so-called temporary prosperity, but the nation's debt now amounts to $2,000 for each and every man, woman and child in the nation. Any individual, county, city or state which attempted to spend itself into prosperity would soon be bankrupt. What is going to keep the federal government from just such a thing if this needless spending continues?

All Americans are no doubt disappointed because Hitler has not been whipped before this time. We have never been over enthusiastic because of the rapid advance of our troops after landing in France. The simple truth is that we over-extended our supply facilities to a certain extent. The American soldier is the best equipped fighter in the world. He is accustomed to and needs a vast greater amount of supplies than any other soldier in the world. The success of our armed forces has been due to the superior war materials of our men. Hitler's forces have kept us from taking the needed ports in France in order to handle the necessary supplies. It takes time to repair and build docks, repair and build highways and railroads, as well as air ports. The war in Europe may not be over before a spring offensive because of this supply problem.

Texas Regulars have been trying in vain to get the Republicans to throw in with them. If the Regulars should win, the 23 electoral votes of Texas could name the next President who is a conservative Democrat. The Republicans have no chance of carrying Texas on November 7. The Texas Regulars are opposed to Sidney Hillman's domination of the Democratic Party. So far, the Republicans have failed to agree. There are enough voters in Texas who would like to see the New Deal defeated, if they would get together. Voting for the Texas Regulars is the only chance any Democrat has in getting a new President who will not give away the resources of this great republic.

Both the Democratic and Republican parties are agreed on two major questions: 1. Winning the war as quickly as possible. 2. Winning the future peace of the world The people now will decide whom they wish to make these policies effective. The military leaders will look after the first problem. Who is best fitted for the peace program? You will answer that on November 7.

According to Washington reports there will be plenty of whiskey for Christmas whether there is feed left for the animals or not. You remember that the President was going to have the people drink themselves back to prosperity when prohibition was repealed. You know just how well he succeeded.

Jack Stricklin of the Terry County Herald, Brownfield, is dean of the Panhandle Press Association. He has published a good newspaper for 35 years in Brownfield. He knows what hard work is and has built a wonderful newspaper which he hopes to turn over to his son, who is now serving with the navy in the Pacific. Jack Stricklin is funny. He does not relish the idea of Sidney Hillman stepping in and taking the fruits of his life's work. Here is the way he puts it:

"According to the dope we are getting from the Congress of Industrial Organization, those birds have it all fixed and tied with a blue ribbon, just how things are going to be done in the future, with a full life, health benefit and unemployment compensation from the cradle to the grave, and us darn fools who work our heads off day in and day out and part of the night, will pay for it. Yes, according to CIO, those old cuckoos who have struck, either standing or sitting, or have not lifted a finger to do anything, are going to have their inning, right after this election, and the guy who has tried to accumulate by hard work and economy, has had his hard work for nothing. Instead of making plans for the future wherein we will not be a burden to our neighbor, state or nation, these CIOers will take what we have in taxes, and divide it among the never-do-gooders or never-have-workers. It is high time the good old middle class Americans wake to their danger."

We have a lot of fixers in this nation, who seek to regulate every phase of our lives. Everything points to future security for everyone—except the taxpayers. The taxpayers can still keep on digging up to keep the fixers at work. It is a wonder that we ever got our war machinery producing in high gear, with all the fixing that has come out of Washington. When you hear any of these fixers brag about the wonderful achievement of America, just keep in mind the fact that these little fixers had nothing to do with building the great industrial plants which were in operation before the war; that they had nothing to do with the millions of trained workers who had been trained in our industrial plants and were ready to change from peace production to war manufacturing. The fixers are going to fix it so the plants will keep busy after the war, and the unionized workers will keep on working. But the farmers, the real producers in the nation, will continue taking what is offered for their products, and the millions of little business men and small manufacturers will continue paying taxes and selling their wares at prices set by the fixers without the protection of any security program. The fixers are going to look after only a very small section of the nation's people—the section which they feel that they can mobilize and push around just as they please.

The President made it clear Saturday night that he wanted a man of experience to represent the United States when it comes to writing the peace. Furthermore, he wanted the President to have the power to send our armed forces any place at any time without asking Congress. The people agree that experienced men should have something to do with writing the peace, yet the President took Morgentheau to Quebec with him, rather than Cordell Hull who has the confidence and respect of all Americans. Morgentheau is another New Deal spender of the Roosevelt type, while Hull is a hard headed man from the ranks who knows that the federal money comes from the people and that the nation's debts must be paid by extracting that money from the pockets of the people.

We are going to have a test of Senator O'Daniel's popularity in Texas. The Senator has been highly successful in his own campaigns. We shall see whether or not the people of Texas will follow him in his determined fight to defeat the Roosevelt- Hillman-Browder machine in Texas. The New Deal political committee in Washington has been raising hell with O'Daniel for spending $100,000 in an effort to defeat the New Deal, but smile off the million dollars which Hillman admits that he is spending to continue the New Deal in office for 16 long years. People of Texas who have followed O'Daniel in the past will now be given a real opportunity to show their loyalty to the program which he advocates.

Those who take national polls predict that Missouri will go for Dewey. Roosevelt kicked Vice President Wallace off the ticket and picked up Senator Truman of Missouri as his running mate. Truman was the office boy for the famous Pendergast, corrupt political boss of Kansas City. The other big city bosses told Roosevelt that he must accept Truman. The voters of Missouri put it this way: Roosevelt will not live out his term of office in spite of the build-up the New Dealers are trying to give on his health. The nation will be electing a future president, and the voters of Missouri, neighbors of Truman, do not want him as President.

An effort is being made by all political parties to get out the vote on November 7. The result of the elections will depend upon the number of votes which are cast in certain border states. Weather will naturally be a determining factor in some of the states where farmers predominate. There are about 88 million qualified voters in the nation. The largest popular vote was in 1940 when 55 million went to the polls. It is feared that the vote will not amount to more than 45 million this year. With the vote so close in many border states, the determining factor may rest with the ability of both parties to get out the vote at vital points.

Only about 25% of the voters take time to think about the constitutional amendments which are submitted to the people. There are two such amendments printed on the bottom of the November election ballots. The first provides for a system of pensions for employees of towns and counties. The second amendment changes the method of levying county taxes but does not increase the amount of tax levy which may be made by Commissioners Courts. Both Amendments have merit, and apply more to the larger counties of the state than to the small ones.

New Deal efficiency: One war plant in the Panhandle is building more units, which will be ready for operation in six months. Two such plants in other parts of the state have been closed for months, and another one will soon be closed. Why spend several million dollars in new units while there are so many idle ones in the nation?

Those who seek your advice want only your approval of their ideas—no matter how crazy these may be.

He hurts the good who spares the bad.

V-NEWS

Are you using "Utility," point free beef?

Utility beef is just as high in nutritive value as the top grades of beef. It has good flavor, high quality protein, minerals, and vitamins.

All home makers know the importance of cooking beef according to the cut, less tender cuts are cooked by moist heat methods as braising and stewing, and the tender cuts by dry heat methods as roasting, broiling and panbroiling. The cuts which are tender when taken from the "good" or "choice" grades of beef, may not be tender in "Utility" beef. To properly cook utility beef, one should use moist heat. Braising and stewing are therefore the methods most generally used.

Here are some suggestions for ways of serving "Utility" beef:

(1) As Swiss Steak. Any cut of steak may be made into Swiss steak by dredging it with flour, browning in fat, and then covering it with tomato and a layer of sliced onions. It is well to add 2 or 3 tablespoons of water. Cook about 3 hours or until tender. Green peppers, or pimiento may be added.

(2) As Stews: Utility beef is ideal for stews, curry dishes and Chinese chop suey. Cut the meat in small pieces, dredge with flour, brown in fat and cook several hours, or until tender. A half hour to three quarters of an hour before serving, add vegetables.

(3) As Meat Pies: A meat pie is a stew with a biscuit or pastry top on it. The method of preparing the meat is the same. Long slow cooking is the important factor.

(4) As Meat Loaf and Hambergers: Grind utility beef and use it in meat loaf, meat patties, and hambergers. If these dishes are seasoned well and attractively served, they are readily accepted by the family.

(5) As Pot-roasts: Practically any cut may be braised and made into a delicious pot-roast. Long slow cooking in moisture, such as, water, tomato juice, diluted vinegar, or sour cream will make a less tender cut of beef, tender and juicy. Following is a recipe for pot-roast with vegetables:

2½ to 3 pounds beef
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
Salt and Pepper
Water
6 carrots
6 potatoes (unpeeled)

Brown pot-roast in hot fat. Season and add water. Cover and simmer for 3 hours. Add vegetables and finish cooking meat and vegetables. Remove to hot platter and thicken gravy with the flour.

Oven Stew

2 slices salt pork
1½ pounds diced beef chuck
1 large onion
2 tablespoons flour
1½ cups water
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon paprika
6 small onions
6 medium carrots
6 medium potatoes

Cpl. Harp Writes Vividly of Africa

Cpl. James T. Harp writes from somewhere in Africa: I shall try to tell something of some of the places I have been in North Africa. I am still in North Africa, but do not expect to be here much longer.

We have been to quite a few places and some of them are peculiar. One place reminds you of Ellis Island with its mixture of races, French, Arabs, Italians, Americans and what have you. The children, as of most foreign countries speak many languages. We had one for a guide, name of Salva, who could speak English, French, Italian and Arab and Sardinian. He was only eleven years old but we could never have seen the things we did if we had not had him. He had seen a lot of the fighting in the streets of his city, and was there when it was recaptured from the Germans. His town was certainly lacking in sanitation more than anything else, and as a result has many odors. The people seem used to it though and, do not seem to mind it at all; they sit out on the sidewalk cafes with the flys and odors. We tried it with the flies so thick that I had to keep one arm busy all the time shooing them away.

The French and Italians are the better class. They have some nice homes and some of the girls are rather good looking, but many of them have bandages on parts of their body covering sores. Usually on their legs and feet.

I can confirm Leroy Wooten's praise of the Red Cross, for they are doing things at different places I have seen. They have refreshments like lemonade, serve cookies, doughnuts, coffee, ice cream, etc. with very reasonable rates." You can buy any two items for about five francs. There were about four Red Cross girls working in one place that made you think home was not so far away.

Every day tours are conducted through the Kasbak, the Arab part of the city. The streets are very narrow, about fifteen feet wide, and little light gets in them at any time of the day. The one bright spot of the KasBak here is the King's palace. It has an office equipped with modern furniture. The walls of the palace are very lavish, and the ceilings are of gold and jewels. This place is clean, not even allowed to smoke there, guess they are afraid of the ashes.

An example of high prices here is our cost of a dinner we had with a French family. It cost us 130 francs ($2.60) each. It was a five course dinner though, and it was good; they served chicken soup, fried eggs, tomato-lettuce-cucumber salad, fried chicken and a pudding for dessert.

We made another trip to a nearby town, and our guide this time cost five of us 700 francs. We saw some old Roman churches there, with just the floors and a few of the pillars left standing. The first floor had been restroyed and another had been built on top of that. The first floor was about 2000 years old and the second was built three hundred years later. We could see what was left of an old acqueduct that had once supplied water for three towns including the one we were visiting. The ruins of old cisterns can still be seen; the remains of two ancient amphitheaters were the largest ruins we saw partially standing; one was used for drama and the other for combats between the christians and the lions.

In a museum we saw many interesting things, but the strangest was some jars, that were said to contain the ashes of the first born children that had been sacrificed to the Moon God. We visited an old Catholic convent that had been used for for ages. The bad part of my visiting was the loss of my film, in some way in taking it from the machine it stripped and all my pictures were lost. Have had no news from home. Hope to leave here soon so that I can hear from home.

John Knight In Letter to News on Texas Politics

Dear Editor:

As per promise, here is that political "Love" letter. Nothing personal, as I'm very much for the clean and neat Canyon News, no whiskey, nor other hurtful advertising. All of which I appreciate.

I have agreed with many editorials. The Democratic administration is far from what it should be, and so have been all others. I cannot forget the old deal (Hoover Republican) which called for the new deal with all of it's so called sins of mistakes and bureaus in our county seats and Washington, D. C. But the farmers financial assistance comes through the local bureaus, of which the local business men endorse, because of the government money brought to the different counties.

You have suggested building a new court house. We do not need a new one for the county officials, but for the growing bureaus. If the ground floor doors continue to be nailed up, we will have to climb the fire escape to get to the county officials' offices.

The anti - Roosevelts number many; Hitler, the Japs, Republicans and now the so called Texas Regulars. I regret very much that you, our County Chairman, threw in with that bunch (Texas Regulars). We should be party democrats, else we can't have a party. Anyone who takes a part in the primary, should be a good sport and support the nominee of the primary, whether it's his choice or not, but there's no law to force one to, just a moral obligation.

Last May when I received Chairman Butler's letter asking for uninstructed delegates, I smelt a goat. By the way, do you know how to keep a goat from smelling or jumping a fence? Stop up his nostrils and remove the fence.

Now all this fuss and feathers was caused by just one thing; to-wit: The regular delegates refused to support the nominee. Hence, the rump convention and their electors. The tail is pretty close to the rump and it got mashed at the Chicago National Convention, and I was for it because the delegates refused to support the nominee. I was also for the net results of the September Dallas convention of Party Democrats. Now we have the Texas Regular Party.

Speaker Rayburn said at Abilene last week that the Regulars had no candidate nor a platform. Texas will protect and defend its law of segregation of whites and negroes. All such laws and reform laws were passed by party Democrats. Texas Regulars now have W. Lee O'Daniels (Anti Roosevelt) to help them.

Our friend, L. A. Pierce, said to me, "We should refer to him as W. Lee O'Daniel, Republican from Kansas, instead of Senator W. Lee O'Daniels, Democrat from Texas." I agree too. Many things can be said on this subject.

Now friend Warwick, let three party Democrats give you a sanity hearing for being our Democrat chairman and an elector on the Texas Regulars ticket all at the same time. Many anti-Roosevelt speakers are telling the world how he has lied to the people. Yet they forget that David of old said in his haste, all men are liars, Psalm 115 chap. 11 verse. Yet, truth and honesty should be out standard.

Texas does not need a few Texas Regulars to defend its laws; it has sworn party Democrats to defend and enforce them. If O'Daniel had been a good Texan and a good sport he would not have opposed my friend, Jimmie Allred's appointment to Federal Court.

Now Mr. Warwick, I really want you to come out of the Texas Regulars and back to our Democratic party and still be our Democratic County Chairman.

I've even been asked if I would subscribe to starting a Democratic paper. I said, "No. We are supposed to have one."

The reason I'm for the negro, if he will support the nomineee like the majority of white voters is. The Yanks whipped the South and freed the Negro. No I don't care if the negro is freed, but I'm still displeased about the licking. Supreme Court says "Let him vote." For the negro to vote is very little association compared to the negro women caring for and doing all kinds of house work for the white women of the South and North too. For that matter, we have only mule (hybred) negroes, all are half or more white. Dr. Carroll of Chicago who wrote the book, "The Negro a Beast," in 1900 said, "There's not a pure bred negro in the U. S." I wonder who's responsible for this terrible condition?

Now Mr. Warwick, all this political fuss will be over Nov. 7. Then we will live together in the same nice little town as before, and I am for it.

Best wishes to you and yours.
Respectfully yours,
John Knight.

(Thanks, Mr. Knight, for this letter. You have a right to your opinion on the political situation, the same as I have, or any other voter. I am not going to vote for Dewey, as some misguided Canyon people are trying to make the people believe. If the Roosevelt followers had been willing to take the advice of Governor Coke Stevenson, as he worked out with the President in Washington, and given the people of Texas a chance to vote for or against the administration, this Texas Regular movement would never have been heard of. I have always been a Democrat, am still a Democrat, but I do not intend following the leadership of Sidney Hillman and Earl Browder. I supported the Democratic ticket when Hoover was elected, and let it be remembered that Hoover carried Randall county with the support and vote of a large number who are now so strong for keeping Roosevelt in the White House as long as he lives. Why then call the depression all the work of Hoover? Did not the Democrats elect him? Roosevelt men threw up their hats and howled with glee when Senator Ball of Minnesota, a Republican, announced he would support the President. Senator Ball says he is still a Republican. When has it come about in this Democratic America that no one can oppose a lifetime tenure in the White House without being branded a Republican? But November 7 will settle all of this turmoil, and may the best candidate win, regardless of the personal feelings of any voted. Thanks for writing.—CWW).

Miss Cross Makes Study of Health Program Post-war

Miss Ruth Cross attended a Health Conference held in Abilene at Hardin-Simmons University last week from October 10 to 13.

The meeting was called by the State Department of Health in Austin, and concerned itself with ways and means of preventing defects in the health of all people.

Boys trying to enter the services of their country are facing a fact that many never realized—they have some physical defect, and thus they are given the term "4-F." However, there have been so many boys rejected that the national government, state and community governments are striving to prevent letting such a national disaster occur again.

Many of the defects in children have been discovered in grade school, but the parents failed to correct them, thinking they would be "grown out of" as the years went on. They did not grow out of them.

Men and women who work in war plants are discovering that they cannot stand the strain of the work and long hours. Their physical condition is poor, and their energy is limited.

Such problems as these were the subject of discussion at the conference.

Many colleges foresaw such conditions as these and several years ago installed a co-educational physical training program. Striving to aid the physical conditions of the Americans is an all-out program, and delegates who attended discussed possibilities for improvement.

Government recommended courses in physical education for both men and women now being offered at W. T. may be more beneficial to the participants than they now realize. These courses especially stress the health of the individuals.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Evans of McKinney, Texas, Mrs. Ethel Friday, Midland, Texas and Raymond Evans of Sweetwater, Texas are at the home of their son and brother, Taylor Evans, because of the serious illness of Miss Polly Evans. Miss Evans came to Canyon to help attend her sister-in-law, Mrs. Taylor Evans, and developed pneumonia.

W. W. Sanford, Jr., has been discharged from the army and after a short visit here with his wife and daughter will return to Billings, Montana, where he will continue teaching school. Mrs. Sanford has been teaching in the Canyon schools, and staying with her mother, Mrs. L. M. Cousins.

Merchants Are Warned on Hot Check Artists

A number of business houses are holding hot checks which have been passed recently.

FBI and local peace officers urge that business houses know the person for whom checks are being cashed and by all means know the signatures of those signing the checks.

The only safe way is to send those with checks to the banks where they must be identified before they can cash checks.

Barnett Ball Is Entertained at Manor in England

Recently T-5 Richard Barnett Ball wrote his father of having spent the week end in rural England and of having visited Faccombe Manor. Shortly thereafter Mr. Ball received the following from the Hon. Mrs. Butler-Henderson, owner of the Manor:

"On the afternoon of Sunday, August 20th my husband and I had the pleasure of entertaining to tea in our home a party of American soldiers; among them was your son, Richard Ball. I promised him that I would write to you and tell you that he had been here and that I thought he was looking well and seemed to be enjoying himself.

"As I am the mother of 6 children, with 3 sons and 2 sons-in-law in the forces at all ends of the world, I know so well how much it means to parents just to have a line from some one about dear ones. I have been to the Headquarters where your boy is stationed and met many of his senior officers who are all charming people and fine soldiers, and I feel sure that if it is God's will and within their power they will send you home your boy safely.

"The War news is all so good now that we are all thinking that the end is getting near so far as the Germans are concerned. Our boys who are fighting against the Japs I fear we shall not see for some time to come.

"During the last 5 years we in England have had some very hard times but we have all done our best to do our duty to our country and work hard and keep smiling.

"I think many of the boys who came here on the 20th were paying their first visit to a big English home. And they enjoyed seeing round the house and all seemed much impressed with my flowers in the house and gardens. My house has about 50 rooms in it. This was very nice in pre-war days when it was always full of young friends of my children but now I often wish I was living in a nice cozy cottage.

"Hoping that you will be pleased to get this letter from me and to know that you were in the mind of your boy when he was happy and in my home. God bless him."

Dr. H. A. Brown and Kermit Schramm have returned from a hunting trip to Arizona.

Enrollment Exceeds National Average

Palo Duro Park

they preferred not to comment at this time, but files of the board showed that there are two mortgages against the property, which, with accrued interest, total approximately $400,000.

The files also showed that despite the fact that the Palo Duro Park leads all others in the state in revenues, there is back interest due on the first mortgage in the amount of $25,000. The only funds available to pay off the principal and interest on the property are the parks' revenue; half of it is used for this purpose and other half is earmarked for maintenance.

The Palo Duro situation was inherited by the present park board.

The board's records show that in July, 1933, 15,103.85 acres of land in Randall and Armstrong counties were acquired for a total consideration of $377,596.25. This included $10 cash, a vendor's lien note of $263,887.96, first mortgage notes of $102,500, accrued interest of $11,198.29.

The vendor's lien or second mortgage matures July 28, 1948, and is held by a Chicago man. The first mortgage notes matured Nov. 1, 1942, and are held by Scottish insurance interests. No payments have been made on the principal of either note, nor on the interest due on the second mortgage. This led to the auditor's report that the outlook for the park was clouded.

The records in the Park Board files also show that in 1933, when the board accepted the deed, it stipulated that it would "in no wise be held liable for payment of the amount of purchase price" and that the purchase was to be paid from revenues only.

For the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, 1944, it was $9,852. Of this, only half could be applied to the indebtedness.

Commenting further on the situation, Senator Hazlewood said that the mortgages approximate $27.50 per acre and that this was too high when land in the vicinity is selling for $10 an acre.

"I believe those interested in the state paying off the mortgage should first convince the mortgage holders of the excess sales price," he said. "There is quite a difference between the figure asked for Palo Duro and the appropriation granted for the Big Bend Park. I understand the $1,500,000 appropriated only figured at $1.50 and $2 an acre."

$150 Raised For Democratic Fund By G. G. Foster

G. G. Foster reports that he has collected and forwarded to state headquarters $150 for the National Democratic Campaign Fund. Randall county had a quota of $100. Mr. Foster made a canvass of the business district and collected $150 for the campaign.

Mr. Foster was appointed three weeks ago to raise this quota in Randall county.

New Semester Will Begin in Spring For Freshmen

The enrollment of West Texas State College now stands at 707 residence students.

According to figures released by the Office of the Registrar on October 19 there are on the campus in Canyon 118 men and 403 women, or a total of 521.

Enrollment at Amarillo Center is 63 men and 123 women, a total for the Center of 186.

The average gain in college attendance throughout the United States is estimated at five per cent. The gain which W. T. has made is almost three times as great as the national average.

Besides its high residence enrollment the college is conducting classes at the industrial plant at Etter and approximately 400 students are receiving instruction through correspondence work.

The figures given above do not include the enrollment in West Texas State Demonstration School where 158 boys and girls are in classes in the high school division and 240 in the grade school division.

Asked this week how he was feeling about the enrollment President J. A. Hill said, "I feel good about it; it is much better than we dared to hope for this year and is better than I realized until I received the figures from Registrar Shirley's office."

Ens. Leon Smith returned to New York Friday, after visiting a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Smith.

There's a Shortage of Copies of The Dallas Morning News—But NOT of Our Desire to Serve!

The crucial shortage of newsprint paper has forced a curtailment of the supply of copies of The Dallas Morning News to our dealers in this county. Only a small part of regular shipments is possible until we are permitted by Government Authority to increase our consumption of newsprint.

Distribution for the present will be made from drug stores and newsstands, unless your agent can arrange otherwise.

We realize, with deep regret, that some of our old-time readers are not able to get copies of The News. We trust they will understand and bear with us while we're making every effort to restore service.

In the meantime, although many patrons will not have The News delivered to them temporarily, their names are still on The Dallas News' Big Book and we look forward to serving them again.

Thank you.

Because of church meetings, P.-T. A. members voted to have the annual Hallowe'en Carnival on Tuesday night instead of Friday night as it has been in the past. Canyon Grade School gymnasium will be the place as it has been in preceding years. P.-T. A. and American Legion members will begin the sale of food at 7 o'clock and patrons are urged to eat their evening meal at the school. Carnival activities will end at 9:30 and at 9:45 the coronation of the Hallowe'en queen, sponsored by the Press Club, will be held. A spooky Hallowe'en picture will be shown at the time of the coronation.

Students in the various classes of school met last Friday to make plans for their booths at the carnival. These booths have been turned in to Milton Sanders who is in charge of the floor arrangement of the concessions: seniors, bingo; juniors, darts; sophomores, ring-the-duck game; freshmen, ball throwing; eighth grade, spooning booth; seventh grade, target range; fourth grade, country store; and second grade, cake walk. The Spanish Clubs chose a fortune teller and a side show; the FFA will sell popcorn and pop, and the FHT will sponsor the sale of pop, ice cream, and popcorn balls at the skating rink, which will be operated by the basketball boys. The P.-T. A. will sell pie, cake, and coffee in the grade school and the American Legion will make hamburgers.

On behalf of the students and faculty of Canyon High School, The Eagle's Tale staff extends its heartfelt sympathy to Ruby, Martha, Jones, and Betty Jane Hales, students in Canyon Public Schools, and to Richmond and Louis, ex-students, at the death of their brother, H. IDEAS APPRECIATED

As one walks down the halls or around our school building he notices ways in which our school could be improved. It is your duty as a loyal student of Canyon High School to report these possibilities for improvements to your Student Council Representative and he, in turn, will present them to the council for action at its regular meetings.

Many ideas have already been acted upon in previous weeks with success. For example, one person has suggested that we station a receptionist in the hall to greet and help all visitors who come to our school. Another has suggested that we have a special flag raising ceremony each morning. Both of these ideas are being acted upon now.

If you have any suggestions as to what can be done to improve our school system, your contribution will be greatly appreciated.

CHS Servicemen Accomplish Exploits for Their Country

School Achieves Half-way Mark

In only two weeks of the War Bonds and Stamps campaign the students of Canyon High School bought almost half of the entire quota, $1,165, which will be used to buy a jeep.

This amount must be bought before December 7, 1944, leaving only one month and two weeks to achieve this goal. This money taken in for War Bonds and Stamps up to last Wednesday was $577.00. Miss Birdie Crabtree, sponsor of the sales, stated that 41 per cent of the Senior Class have bought Bonds and Stamps and that more students should buy War Bonds. They are sold from 9:30 till 10:00 in the morning in the hall on Tuesday and Wednesdays and from 1:30 till 2:00 at noon.

Canyon High Changes Former "Ag" Room

"The room of a hundred uses." That phrase might well describe room 23. Although it still goes by the handle "Ag room," agriculture is no longer taught there. Instead it is used for math, club meetings, journalism, faculty meetings, board meetings, and class meetings. At different times some "industrious" student uses it to meditate over math, boys (or girls as the case may be), English, girls, Spanish boys, chemistry, girls, or lunch. Then, too, if there is some heavy typing to do there are several typewriters lying around with hardly anyone using them.

Altogether, though, most people appreciate the space afforded by this room.

Instructors Begin Private Lessons

Mrs. Glenn Dowlen and Mrs. Ray McReynolds are taking care of the music situation in both the grade and high schools.

Mrs. Dowlen is teaching both piano and voice each Monday and Thursday in the grade school building.

Mrs. McReynolds is teaching piano only and is arranging her schedule to come as many days as necessary each week.

1944 graduate Manus R. Foster is home on leave from the University of Kansas, where he is receiving training in electrical engineering. Manus has been stationed at Lawrence, Kansas, during the four months he has been on duty in Uncle Sam's Navy.

J. D. Hollabaugh, son of I. H. Hollabaugh, visited in Canyon High School last Wednesday. He is in Basic Training at Amarillo Army Air Field.

Ex-student J. W. Pierce is on furlough after serving for twenty-three months in Southern England. For the past two and one half years Judge, as he is known, has been serving with the 67th General Hospital of the Medical Corps. At the end of his furlough Judge will report to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey.

Charles Owens, 1943 graduate, who is in the navy, is home but reporters have been unable to obtain an interview.

Ministers State Religious Aims

Eight ministers from churches in Canyon and surrounding towns were guests of the Canyon High School student body Wednesday morning at a religious assembly program.

"Onward Christian Soldiers," led by Betty Brown, opened the assembly. Dr. G. K. Rogers and Rev. Marvin L. Boyd addressed the student body and Rev. A. A. Brian led the group in prayer. Pastors present were: Raymond Jones, Assembly of God, Amarillo; W. J. Phelps, Assembly of God, Canyon; Mr. Brian, Baptist, Brownfield; Dr. Roy L. Johnson, Baptist, Canyon; Mr. Boyd, Methodist, Hereford; Rev. C. C. Armstrong, Methodist, Canyon; Dr. Rogers, Presbyterian, Plainview; and Robert W. Jones, Presbyterian, Canyon.

On Wednesday of last week the 1944-45 basketball squad elected their co-captains. Don Standley and J. Spencer Winn were selected by the majority vote.

Annual Pledges Exceed Quota

Members Make Many Decisions

Classes of Canyon High School held regular meetings Friday morning to discuss preparations for the Hallowe'en carnival.

Seniors decided to have "Bingo" as their booth for the carnival. Harold Erwin appointed committees to help decorate the booth and to raise the flag every morning this week. Billy Thurman sang "I'll Walk Alone" and James Lair sang "Going My Way."

The Junior class discussed the subscription sales of magazines and fixed the contest rules for those selling the most subscriptions.

Changing their carnival booths to "ringing ducks' necks," the sophomores got under way Friday morning. They elected James Meroney as parliamentarian. Betty Ann Miller, Frances Gooch, and Geraldine Small are in charge of the booth.

"Throwing tennis balls" is to be the Freshmen's booth at the carnival. Committees were decided on for working, building and decorating.

"Spoon" is the eighth grade's booth. In the meeting they decided on the decorations.

A decoration committee was selected for the seventh grade's booth, a Bee-bee Rifle Range for the Hallowe'en carnival.

Students Choose Hallowe'en Booth

Last Friday Spanish I students met for the second time this year, when their main business discussion pertained to the Hallowe'en booth.

Dick Milford, president, selected a committee to decorate the booth, and students made several suggestions for their side show. Since the club neglected to elect a song leader in their last meeting, they selected Frances Gooch to lead the club for the remainder of the year.

Marilyn Johnigan, program chairman, led the group in saying the pledge of allegiance, (Prendo a La Bandera—to the Spanish students), and singing "Alla En El Rancho Grande." Some class members worked on their notebooks for the remainder of the period while others learned a new Spanish song, "Donde a Donde?" Laura Lee Davis and Earlene Davis served as captains for the Spanish number and word games played by the group as a drill on past Spanish lessons.

Officers Discuss FHT Activities

Canyon High School officers of Future Homemakers of Texas met Friday and discussed a number of plans for future club activities.

They decided to sell pop, ice cream, and popcorn balls for the skating rink at the Hallowe'en Carnival and are also going to sell waste paper during the year. This organization has affiliated with the state by paying area and state dues. The officers also held a discussion on the initiation of new members.

Gallants Join Usual Mystic Snipe Hunt

Gee, but that was a swell weiner roast! Man, didn't you have a good time! These quotations have been going the rounds with the seniors since Friday when their social season began with a picnic in the country. Yelling, screaming, and shouting began the evening and yelling, screaming and shouting ended the evening.

Since eating is always the main attraction of every occasion, the crowd ate first. Chile sauce and mustard drooled down everyone's chin as each stood around the campfire eating the usual smoke-drenched weiners. Everyone ate until he absolutely couldn't eat any more, then the activity began. Running, running, and more running got everyone all warmed up for the main attraction of the evening. Confidentially, Nancy Wilson is a fast runner in any race.

And then the event came. Every senior who hadn't been on a snipe hunt started out across the plains to hunt the furry little animals (at least the last ones WE caught looked like that). Mrs. Knott, the wonderful "just one of the kids" was the spokesman of the group including Pauline Baker, Mary Lou Gunter, Rose Hugg, and Mary Etta Canada. These brave comrades were left "holding the bag" in the big middle of no-where and off trouped the "Know-it-alls."

About one hour later people began to get worried. Where were the snipe hunters? Finally the conclusion came—THEY'RE LOST! The search began, o'er hill and dale but still no big game hunters.

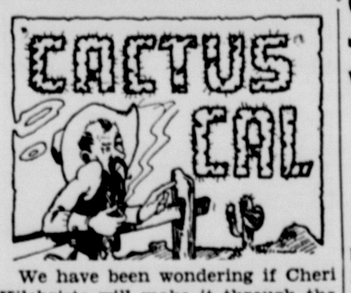
They came in after so long a time but the trick was on the "Know-Its," not the hunters, because these snipers had been hiding out in the hogpens—laughing! What a gallant leader Mrs. Knott is to hide her group in such a personal, secluded spot! But they felt all right Monday.

Grade Notes

Mrs. J. A. Meyer and Mrs. Roscoe Davis sponsored a birthday party in honor of Annette and Helen Meyer. The party was considered one of the most outstanding birthday parties ever given in grade school. Games were played and the children made hats and other items.

In the first grade Juan Hernandez was ill for a period of one week.

Mrs. Cousins' fourth grade has eighty per cent of the pupils buying War Bonds and Stamps. The organizing of a citizenship club was completed by this room. The officers are as follows: President, Doris Keller; vice president, Barbara Glanton; secretary, Coy Black.



We have been wondering if Cheri Kilchriste will make it through the school year without Loren Hightower.

When will Richmond Hales decide between those two blond belles, Dorothy McAfee and Charlene Simmons?

Ellen Sanders and Mary Ann Bellah must be slipping because their boyfriends, J. Spencer Winn and Charles Taylor, were seen showing Betty and Peggy Jackson the sights of Canyon. Hmmmn!

Several sub-freshmen, Mary Sue Foster, Sue and Fay Dickerson, Betty Jo Ponder and Mable Ann Graham are open for suggestions for their new fall beaux. Anyone's help would be gratefully appreciated.

Why was it that every time Leroy Hutton took Frances Harp's hand Friday night an electric shock passed through her body?

Have my eyes deceived me or is there really something blooming between Clifford Burtz and Glenna Eiland?

A number of Seniors must have decided to turn over a new leaf and make a new start, as the following couples—attending a class party will prove: Harold Lee Erwin and Dorothy Scott, John Gill and Nancy Wilson, Harley Hicks and Betty Brown.

Eloise Adams and Ruby Bosley seem to be doing okay with the GI's.

Taking Martha Jean Avent to the show Friday night was that handsome blond Austelle Burrus. Hang on to him, Martha Jean!

On a snipe-hunt, Vergie Haines brought back Billy Ray Crow. Possibly it was a case of mistaken identity.

Who is that dark, good-looking "man" Zorene Oldham has been seen with lately?

A little bird, observing the peculiar actions of a certain car and looking in, saw to its amazement Joanna Haines and Carl Eugene Hair.

Sanders Directs Yearbook Work

CHS Votes Will Indicate Yearly Publication Title

In fulfillment of a contract with the Taylor Engraving Company, business manager Margaret Lair and her assistants have collected approximately 175 one-dollar deposits for the publication of a 1944-45 yearbook for Canyon Independent Schools.

With an estimated cost of $2.00 or $2.50 per book, this annual will contain individual pictures of faculty members, school officials, and members of high school classes. Group pictures will be made of first through eighth grade classes and all school organizations, including PTA, FFA, FHT, Press Club, and Spanish Club. Departments, sports, favorites, and snapshots of campus life will also have places in this publication, the first of its kind for CHS since 1931.

Although subscriptions and pictures will help to finance the yearbook, advertising from the various business houses of Canyon will furnish the chief source of revenue.

As yet a name has not been chosen for the publication, but three suggestions, "The Eagle," "Soaring Wings," and "The Eagle Speaks" will be voted on by the student body this week.

Produced by workers of the "Eagle's Tale" and sponsored by Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, this blue bound copy with a significant white eagle on the cover should be available to purchasers by April 1.

Work on the yearbook begins this week with one staff addition. Vergie Haines assuming duties as assistant editor along with Ellen Root.

All pictures will be made by the Hennington Photography Company by December 1.

HOUSEWIVES CAN AID CEILING DRIVE

Housewives everywhere are urged to cooperate with their grocer in a campaign to more prominently display ceiling prices in stores and to stimulate the use of price lists by consumers. The Office of Price Administration in cooperation with leading grocer associations and consumer organizations is seeking to have shoppers talk more fully and frankly about ceiling prices as a major means of strengthening community efforts to hold down living costs.

FRESH CRANBERRIES CEILINGS SET

The highest retail price for fresh cranberries for that holiday dinner will be about 41 cents a pound, according to OPA, which has established cents per pound retail mark-ups on this product effective October 26. Group 1 and 2 stores, dong an annual business of less than $250,000 are given a mark-up of 10½ cents a pound and group 3 and 4 stores, doing a yearly business of more than $250,000, are given a mark-up of 10 cents a pound.

LAKE HERRING PRICES SUSPENDED

Retail ceiling prices on fresh lake herring have been suspended, effective October 26, OPA announces. The action follows indications that the price of this fish will be generally below the 1942 price levels, which was the minimum level required by the stabilization extension act for fishermen's ceiling prices. However, OPA said that if fresh lake herring prices should rise above 1942 levels ceilings will be promptly reset.

SHOE RATIONING STILL NEEDED

Present inventories and the present rate of production of shoes show the necessity for continued shoe rationing, the OPA and the War Production Board report. The statement pointed out that over-all production of civilian shoes of rationed types in the first half of this year was 134,065,000 pairs contrasted with 154,125,000 pairs in the like 1943 period, which was also short of needs.

OPA GUARDS GASOLINE QUALITY

Gasoline sold at service stations and other retail establishments at ceiling prices set for premium grades must meet a minimum octane specification of 75, OPA announces. This action has been taken to protect buyers from any attempts to sell lower grade gasolines at the higher ceiling prices established for premium grades. OPA said most sellers are offering premium grade gasoline having an octane rating not lower than 75. The announcement pointed out that at present the Petroleum Administration for war does not permit manufacture of gasoline for civilian commercial channels at premium grade to exceed 76 octane—a step necessary to maintain military supplies of higher octane fuels.

COURT HITS BLACK MARKET "GAS"

Efforts of the OPA to wipe out the Black Market in counterfeit gasoline coupons were greatly strengthened by decisions in three injunction cases recently handed down by the United States District Courts in Greenville and Greenwood, S. C. Thomas I. Emerson, Deputy OPA Administrator for enforcement, said. The decision makes clear the obligation of gasoline distributors to refuse to supply gasoline to dealers who have failed to surrender valid coupons to replace counterfeits for which they previously obtained gasoline. This obligation to cut off supplies of a dealer who has not made good any invalid coupons is binding on the supplier, regardless of any contract with the dealer, the court ruled.

DECEMBER 1 GIFT MAIL DEADLINE

December 1 is the deadline requested by the Post Office Department for mailing Christmas gifts inside the United States. Every citizen who is playing Santa Claus for loved ones and friends in other towns is urged to get that present in the mails by that date to assure proper delivery. The reason, say postal officials, is that Americans are expected to mail domestically 25 per cent more gifts than a year ago—and at a time when the Post Office has fewer employees and less well-trained holiday help than ever before. In addition, the fact that more people have moved to different addresses to do war work is expected to mean that the average distance traveled by each gift will be greater than ever before.

CHRISTMAS STREET LIGHTING BAN

The Office of War Utilities of WPB is asking city officials, civic clubs, chambers of commerce, merchants and citizens to dispense with outdoor lighting this Christmas, as was done in 1942 and 1943. Object of the request is to reduce electricity consumption and coal requirements. The fuel situation in most areas of the country is critical and strict conservation is required to keep war plants going full blast and homes properly heated, officials point out.

RECONVERSION JOB GIVEN INDUSTRY

"The job of reconversion, when it comes, will be put squarely up to industry with an absolute minimum of interference from Washington," declared Edward R. Gay, Assistant Vice Chairman for Civilian Requirements in WPB, at a Boston meeting of the Nation Retail Furniture Association. Pointing out that Government had to step in two years ago when war conversion was the prime essential, Mr. Gay said that "some day Government is going to be able to say to many manufacturers, you've done your war job. Get back to making your peacetime products. We'll help you where we can, but this job is yours. And I am confident that industry will accept this challenge gladly and will do the job better than any of us in Washington could plan it."

CARD OF THANKS

I truly appreciate the friendliness shown me, and I want to thank each one who helped with the fund deposited at the bank during my illness. Maggie Tinnin.

Some men grow under responsibility; while others only swell.

Isn't it a pity that when we lose our temper we have to find it again.

You can pick up a lot of interesting, if not useable, information from an encyclopedia.

For instance, the castor-oil plant is a native of India. And a lot of little boys wish, no doubt, that its product had all been kept in India.

And cochineal is a dye material of bright crimson and consists of the dried bodies of female insects that feed on cacti in the tropics, and it takes 70,000 of them to make a pound of dye. Count 'em for yourself, if you doubt it.

Abe Martin—now there was a writer for you! All he had to do was to write two short sentences a day for his humorous feature which appeared in so many newspapers. One of his best ones was written after Harding was elected President and the country was having a depression. Abe wrote, "Farmer Jones was in town Saturday and bought a pair of pants with $3 that he had left over from the Woodrow Wilson administration."

Which calls to mind an incident during Hoover's administration when there was a depression, too, as you perhaps recall. At that time, I was editor of a paper in West Texas and one day this letter was received from a farmer:

"Dear Editor:

"I read in your paper about a year ago that Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, was going to call in all the big paper money and substitute small paper money for it.

"Did he ever do it?"

And that reminds me of the story about President Hoover who, it seems, was walking down the street with Secretary Mellon and said, "Andy, let me have a nickle; I want to call up one of my friends." Mellon replied: "Here's two nickles; call up both of them."

It's a mighty good thing to be able to forget the things you don't want to remember.

Wartime motorists from coast to coast say...

"No car like a Studebaker!"

"Not for sale," says county official "Twice I've had attractive money offers for my Champion," says J. Stanley Howard of Liberty, Kentucky. "I won't sell because Studebaker economy and stamina in wartime mean too much."

LETTERS from owners have been streaming in to Studebaker headquarters from all sections of America—outspoken, fact-packed, impressive letters praising the remarkable reliability and low-cost performance of Studebaker Champion, Commander and President cars.

We publish a few of those comments here. They tell you better than we could why Studebaker owners these war days appreciate Studebaker engineering and craftsmanship and prudently hold on to their cars.

"No engine repair bills," says this owner "My Studebaker Champion is a joy to own these days," writes college teacher Audrey L. Packham of Florida. "I've had no engine repair bills."

STUDEBAKER WEASEL

Nicknamed the Weasel because of its stealth and swiftness, its sure-footed traction on virtually any kind of terrain, this new vehicle is powered by a Studebaker Champion engine and built by Studebaker under contract with the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces. A water-borne Weasel, the M-29C, is also now in service.

This Skeptical Gentleman represents many hundreds of thousands of automobile owners . . . intelligent, patriotic drivers who are determined to give their cars the best of care, who understand the nation's need for keeping every possible car running for the duration.

They require no long-winded arguments to convince them that quality oil is the best policy. They ask only: How can I select a quality lubricant, when I am neither an engineer nor a chemist? Isn't there some simple, easy way to make sure of getting a motor oil of quality?

There is! Phillips, with an outstanding reputation in the field, makes a frank and clear statement to relieve all doubt when choosing between the various oils marketed under this good name. Phillips says, if you want our best oil, remember we frankly tell you that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and the greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

Oil wears thin in summer use. It also accumulates dust, metal particles, and oxidation products. So it's wise, say experts, to drain every two months, under today's reduced driving conditions. Especially when you make the seasonal change, ask for the correct winter grade of Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Rotary Speaker at Luncheon of Club Here Tuesday Noon

Hal A. McNutt of Stillwater, Okla., spoke Tuesday at the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club. He is giving his time to Rotary International in visiting various clubs over the Southwest. He was a former District Governor in Oklahoma.

Mr. McNutt praised the program of the local club, but ribbed the membership for the low attendance average. Canyon has been near the bottom of the district for several months.

Rotary will be 40 years old in February. It has withstood many storms and is the No. 1 civic club. It has 5428 clubs in 54 countries, with 200,000 members. 35 new clubs have been organized since July 1.

The speaker outlined the obligation of the members to his club, and the responsibility of the club to the member. His talk was of great inspiration to local members who heard him.

Roy Holland, manager of the Southwestern Public Service Co., was introduced as a new member. He was a member of the Post Rotary Club for 17 years.

Visitors were: A. P. Hancock, Dr. W. B. Stevenson, Arch Hunsley, Ross D. Rogers, R. E. Wertz, F. R. Barnes, E. Kancher, John Cowan, Geo. Waddill, all of Amarillo; Rev. Albert Brian of Brownfield; Henry Horn and Burch Collins of Channing; Thos. B. McCarter of Canyon.
